TRANSFER PROCESSING:

Upon receipt of the Notice of Transfer of Claim together with the required attachment, KCC will promptly give notice to the alleged transferor. The notice to the alleged transferor will provide that any objection to the transfer shall be made to KCC within 30 days of the date of mailing the notice to the alleged transferor.

If transferor files a timely objection, either within 30 days of mailing of the notice to the alleged transferor or within any extension of the deadline agreed to by the Assignee in its sole discretion, Assignee will advise the alleged transferor and transferee of the dispute and will not record the transfer until Assignee receives notice from both the transferor and transferee that the parties have resolved their dispute or receives a final non-appealable order from a court of competent jurisdiction resolving such dispute. If no objection is timely filed, KCC will substitute the transferee for the transferor in the Unisen ABC claims register.
